

AMUHACKS 3.0 Rules and Guidelines

Eligibility:

1. Participants: AMUHACKS 3.0 welcomes participants from all academic backgrounds, genders, and locations. There are no age restrictions. Should be any university course at an accredited institution nationwide.
2. Team Formation: Teams can comprise 2 to 4 members. Exceptions for larger teams may be considered on a case-by-case basis upon contacting the organizing committee.
3. University Enrollment: Participants must be currently enrolled in any university course to be eligible to participate.

Project Development:

1. Development Start: Development may only commence at the official start time of the event. Any prior development will result in automatic disqualification.
2. Tools and Languages: Participants are free to use any software development tools, programming languages, or frameworks for their projects.
3. GitHub Repository: Teams must create a GitHub repository for their project after April 25th, 2024. The repository name should be in the format "Teamname_amuhacks3.0" and it should be public. In the README file of the repository, include the following hashtags:
#AMUHACKS3.0 #GDSCAMU #CSSAMU #CSDAMU #AMU.
4. Project Submission: Teams must submit the link to their GitHub repository via the circulated form provided by the organizing committee. Regular commits to the team repository are required throughout the event. And the project must be hosted.
5. Code Review: All submitted projects will undergo random code reviews to ensure originality and compliance with the rules.
6. One Entry per Team: Each team may submit only one project for consideration. Participation is on a per-team basis; participants cannot be part of more than one team.

Attendee Code of Conduct:

1. Harassment-Free Environment: AMUHACKS 3.0 is dedicated to providing a harassment-free experience for all participants. Harassment of any form, including but not limited to gender, gender identity, age, sexual orientation, disability, race, ethnicity, nationality, or religion, will not be tolerated.
2. Respectful Behavior: Participants are expected to treat each other with respect and refrain from engaging in any behavior that may cause discomfort or offense to others.
3. Consequences: Violation of the code of conduct may result in expulsion from the hackathon without refund, and further action may be taken as deemed appropriate by the organizers.

By participating in AMUHACKS 3.0, all attendees agree to abide by these rules and guidelines. Let's make this event a collaborative and enriching experience for everyone involved!

Date: April 27th-28th, 2024 (24-Hour Online Event)

Organized by: Department of Computer Science in association with GDSC AMU and CSS.